

EERA JP on Smart Grids
24th Steering Committee meeting hosted by FOSS Cyprus
Workshop on 11th of May 2016 - University of Cyprus

AGENDA

Islands and / or weakly linked grids with high potential of market mature RES

University of Cyprus new campus - Nicosia

Agenda 9:00 - 17:00
9:00 - 9:45	Transport from Hotel in Larnaka to the University Campus
9:45 - 10:00	Registration
10:00 - 10:05	Welcome Prof Constantinos P. Constantinou - Vice Rector for International Affairs, Finance and Administration, University of Cyprus
10:05 - 10:15	Introduction Dr Luciano Martini, RSE and Prof George E Georgiou, FOSS
10:15 - 10:25	Position of Ministry of Energy Constantinos Xichilos
10:25 - 10:35	Position of Cyprus Energy Regulatory Authority Dr Andreas Poullikkas
10:35 - 10:45	Position of TSO of Cyprus Dr Constantinos Varnava
10:45 - 10:55	Position of DSO of Cyprus Tasos Gregoriou
10:55 - 11:05	The challenges of RES integration in the energy system of Cyprus Nicos S. Kyriakides
11:05 - 11:25	Assessing the integration of RES through an experimental platform Evangelos KOTSAKIS of JRC
11:25 - 11:55	Coffee break
11:55 - 13:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Operational implications due to high penetration of RES: Setting the scene - Dr Venizelos Efthymiou - The Italian Experience: fast and massive growth of DG make system operation more complex - Towards a «smart system» - Dr Luciano Martini - How to fit the European power market for the renewable future - a look into market design options post-2020 - Knut Samdal
13:00 - 14:00	Networking lunch break
14:00 - 15:15	Tour of PV Lab facilities
15:15 - 15:30	Coffee break
15:30 - 16:50	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Austrian Experience and lessons learned - Helfried Brunner - Frequency and Voltage control testing with Series-produced Electric Vehicles - Mattia Marinelli - "Opportunities for supply of stabilising power in the Future Grid" - Klaas Visscher
16:50 - 17:00	Closing remarks
17:00 - 22:00	Visit to Ledra Street: Walk through the streets with the support from Tourist authorities Dinner: 20:00 hrs at a local restaurant
22:00	Return to hotel